

Wesley
Peachtree Institute

LEARN MORE & REGISTER NOW!
www.wpi-inc.org/hbcuforum.html

VIRTUAL WPI 2021 HBCUFORUM

MARCH 8 - 9, 2021

FINANCIAL STABILITY IN UNCERTAIN TIMES:
Emerging Opportunities for HBCU Boards and Administrative Leaders

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

James E. Clyburn
Congressman
U.S. House of Representatives

Belle S. Wheelan
President
SACSCOC

Ruth J. Simmons
President
Prairie View A&M University

Bridget Terry Long
Dean
Harvard Graduate School of Education

Joseph H. Silver
President
Silver & Associates

Kassie Freeman
President & CEO
African Diaspora Consortium

Dr. M. Christopher Brown
President
Kentucky State University

PLATINUM SPONSORS

Morgan Stanley

THIS YEAR'S MUST-ATTEND EVENT FOR:

- HBCU Presidents • Administrators • Board Members
- Staff • Corporate Partners • Friends of HBCUs

Join your colleagues and industry experts for two powerful days of networking, education, strategy, and fun

INTERACT + ENGAGE!

MORE THAN 30 EXCITING SESSIONS AND NETWORKING OPPORTUNITIES

- Engage with and learn from higher education experts
- Get the latest information on regulatory changes
- Learn new skills
- Network with peers
- Get new "outside the box" ideas on accreditation, sustainability, asset management, and more!

CONFERENCE TRACKS:

- Cost Controls & Fiscal Compliance
- Enrollment & Retention
- Fundraising & New Opportunities
- Courageous Leadership & HBCU Distinctiveness

SPONSORS

Academic Partnerships / Vistria • Bernstein • Walden University

The Wesley Peachtree Institute is a non-profit corporation organized to provide information, research, training, and consultation for administrators and staff of minority-serving institutions. The Institute was organized by Wesley Peachtree Group, CPAs, as evidence of the firm's dedication to and support of minority-serving institutions.

HBCU affiliates attend free